Points to Ponder

There are no wasted words
with God.

<sup>14</sup> Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. <sup>15</sup> For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup> Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Points to Ponder

There are no wasted words with God.

God intentionally places His people where He wants them to be.

Points to Ponder

God cares about justice for His people.

Points to Ponder

God cares about justice for His people.

The greatest gift for us as God's people is God Himself.

Psalm 73:26; Lamentations 3:24

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and
my portion forever.

“The LORD is my portion,” says my soul,
“therefore I will hope in him.”

Benediction

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”

- The greatest _____ for us as God's people is God Himself.

Reflection Questions:

1. Why is recounting God's past acts of faithfulness so important for His followers? How have you found this to be helpful and encouraging for you personally?
2. How do the promises of God change the way you pray? In what ways do you need to be bolder in the way you pray to God?
3. How can you see the sovereign hand of God in where He has placed you currently in life? Do you see His goodness in this? If yes, how so? If no, what promises of God do you need to trust in this season?
4. What do the cities of refuge (chapter 20) teach you about God and His view of justice? What stands out to you from this chapter?
5. What is our spiritual inheritance as Christians? What are you most looking forward to about your future inheritance?
6. In what ways are you tempted to value God's gifts more than God Himself? What would it look like to treasure God above all other earthly gifts?
