Reflection Questions:

1. What is faithfulness? Based on what you learned this morning, how would Caleb and Joshua define faithfulness?
2. Have you ever experienced a lonely faith like Caleb and Joshua (Numbers 13 & 14)? What sustained you during that time?
3. What does the faithful example of Caleb teach you about finishing the Christian life well? Why does the church need faithful men and women like this? What steps can you presently take to make your life count for God until the very end?
4. Who are the examples of Christian faithfulness in your own life? What have you learned from them?
5. What does it mean that any honor we receive for our faithfulness will be redirected to the Lord? Read Luke 17:7-10. How should this passage shape the way we view our service to God?
