

An assurance of salvation

A salvation which is as valid or certain as the salvation of the apostles

An assurance of salvation placed on the righteousness of Christ and His fulfillment of the Father's will on our behalf

THIS IS TO THOSE who have been given...

Jesus is God

Jesus is the Savior of the world in those who call upon His name for forgiveness (Act 4:11–12)

	0	Two very important things we learn from Peter's introduction.
		 Authority does not remove the call of servanthood from the of Christ.
		Servanthood does not remove authority from in the body of Christ.
		• (John 13:1-17)
		Service comes from for the ones who are being served.
		Serving others does not mean we our place or position in the lives of those we serve.
		Serving requires us to ourselves before those we are serving.
		 When we serve others they may not understand we are doing what we are doing.
		When we serve, we do not disregard those who have made themselves our
		If it is our desire to be like Christ than we must be or we have set ourselves in a place above Him.
		 When Peter says he is a servant of Christ he is placing himself in a position of subservience to those came to serve.
		He is serving their need
		He is serving as Christ would serve
		He is serving with Christ as the authority
		He is serving trusting that Christ knows our need.
