

ACTS

CHRIST BUILDS
HIS CHURCH

THE COMPELLING COMMUNITY | Acts 2:42-47

MAIN POINT

Because Jesus is risen, the Spirit forms a compelling community marked by truth, shared life, prayer, and transforming grace.

The Spirit unites us around the truth of Jesus,
who is our risen Lord.

2

The Spirit invites us to share life together at the table to celebrate the victorious Christ.

3

The Spirit bonds us as we depend upon the risen Jesus to intercede.

A

The Spirit gives us resurrection power to share God's transforming grace.

EPHESIANS

"NOW TO HIM WHO IS ABLE TO DO FAR MORE ABUNDANTLY THAN ALL THAT WE ASK OR THINK, ACCORDING TO THE POWER AT WORK WITHIN US, TO HIM BE GLORY IN THE CHURCH AND IN CHRIST JESUS THROUGHOUT ALL GENERATIONS, FOREVER AND EVER."

3:20-21

Discussion Questions:

1. What does it mean for our church to be “devoted to the apostles’ teaching,” and how does the finished work of Jesus make that devotion joyful rather than burdensome?
2. How have you experienced meaningful fellowship around a table, and what might it look like to open your home to others?
3. What does Spirit-produced generosity look like in everyday life?
4. What is one thing you learned about Jesus today that makes you thankful?
5. Why is it good news that Jesus already finished the work for us?
6. Why do we pray together as a family? What does praying show about who we depend on?
7. How can our family show God’s love to people who are different from us?
8. Who is one person we can pray for or invite into our home this week?
