

ACTS

CHRIST BUILDS
HIS CHURCH

Man's Mission and God's Provision | Acts 4:23-31

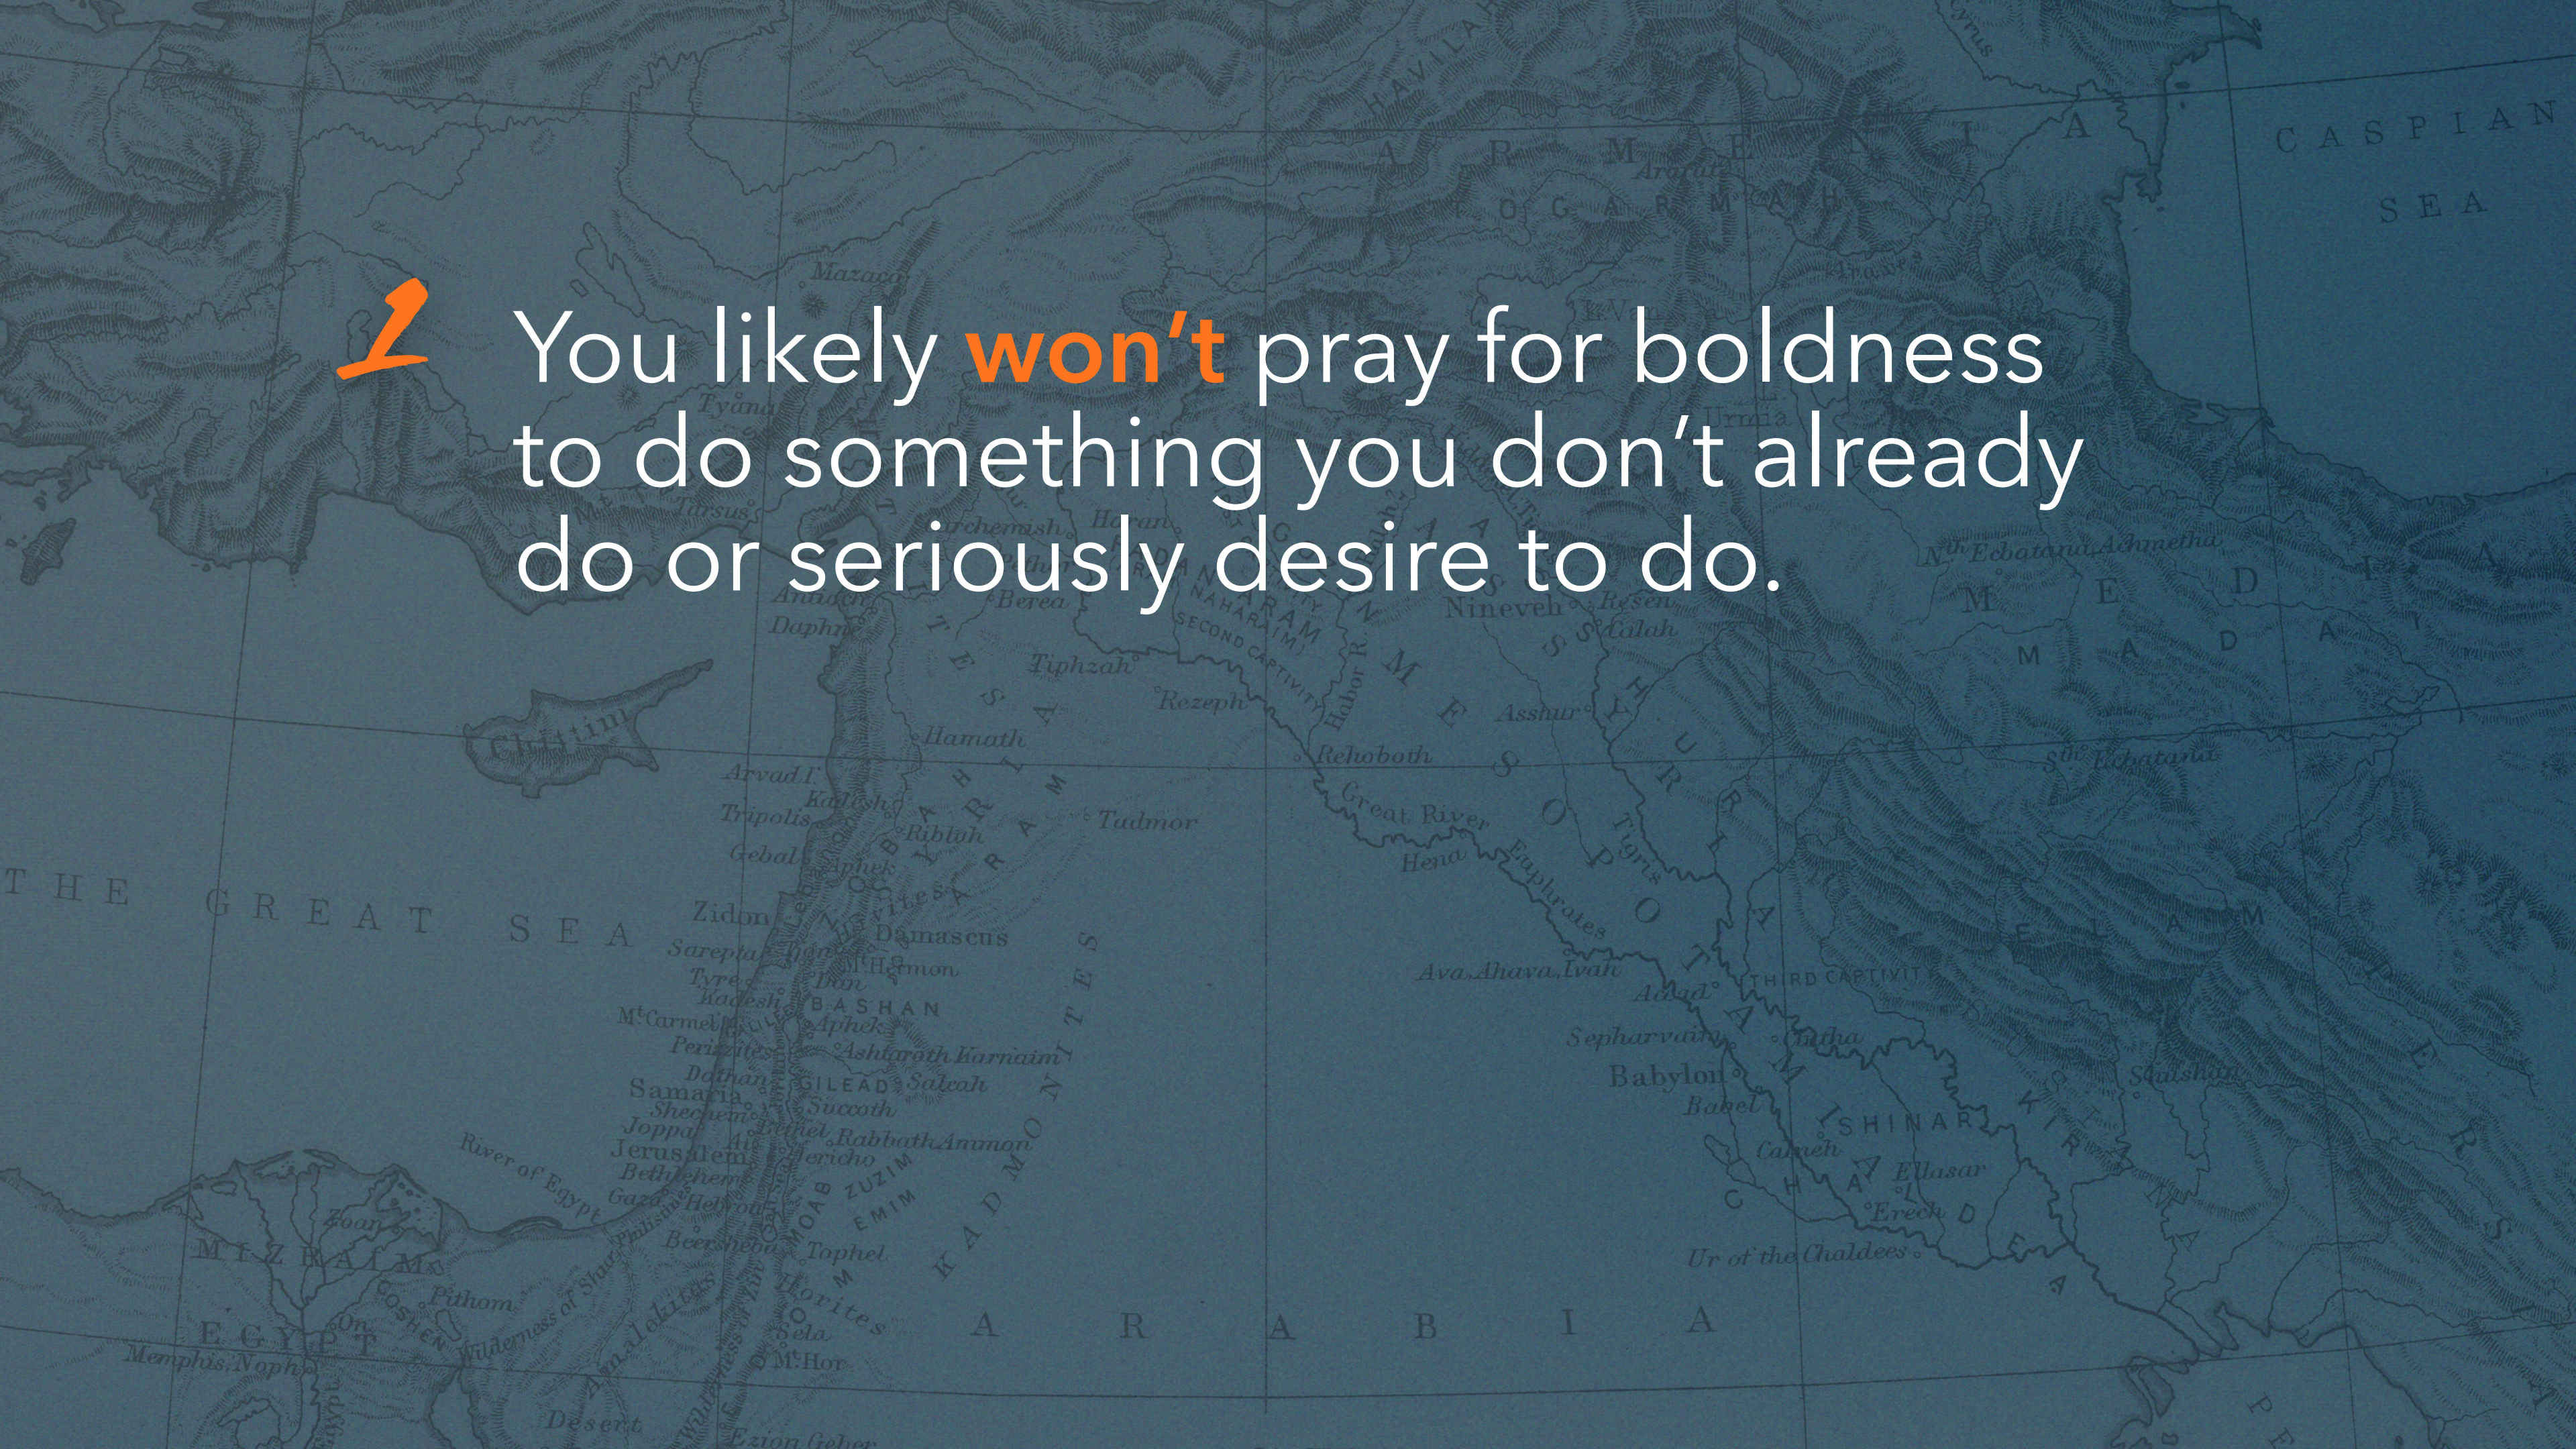

MAIN POINT

Be about the business of praying
in all things.

You likely won't pray for boldness to do something you don't already do or seriously desire to do.

You likely won't pray for boldness to do something you don't already do or seriously desire to do.

Do you view evangelism as a negotiable part of your Christian life?

2 If you don't depend on God in prayer, your ministry + your life will be spiritually powerless.

2 If you don't depend on God in prayer, your ministry + your life will be spiritually powerless.

These Christians knew that they needed God to work.

However, if you pray for God to give you courage and desire to evangelize, he will always answer that prayer.

What other prayers will God always answer with a YES?

However, if you pray for God to give you courage and desire to evangelize, he will always answer that prayer.

All ministry must be dependent on God!

However, if you pray for God to give you courage and desire to evangelize, he will always answer that prayer.

Where are you prayerless?

- At home?
- At your job?
- As you serve at church?
- Even in your hobbies?

A CHALLENGE

Almost undoubtedly at the heart of your lack of desire for God and His Kingdom are misordered priorities.

A CHALLENGE

Almost undoubtedly at the heart of your lack of desire for God and His Kingdom are misordered priorities.

Consider your time, schedule, hobbies, thought life. Pray, ask for forgiveness, and reorient your life accordingly.

3. However, if you pray for God to give you courage and desire to evangelize, he will always answer that prayer.

- What other prayers will God always answer with a YES?

- All ministry must be dependent on God!

- What areas are you prayerless? Do you pray very little about some things in your home? At your job? As you serve at church? When you enjoy a hobby?

A Challenge

- Almost undoubtedly at the heart of your lack of desire for God and His Kingdom are misordered priorities.
- Consider your time, schedule, hobbies, thought life. Pray, ask for forgiveness, and reorient your life accordingly.
