— Today's Sermon ——————————————————————— 11-22-26 —

"A Perfect Gospel for Imperfect People – Part 2"

Acts 15:22-35 – Pastor Josh Gerber

"And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement." — Acts 15:31

Main point: While legalism will _____ you, God's grace will _____ you.

1. Grace _____ us to stand together for the gospel (vv22–26).

2. Grace _____ us to live for God and give to others (vv27–29).

3. Grace moves us to _____ and strengthen one another (vv30–35).

Discussion Questions:

1. What is the difference between being free from something and being free for something? (Gal 5:13)
2. It's one thing to tolerate a decision you disagree with and another to unite around it. Where is that hardest for you: at church, in your marriage, in your family, or at work? How does grace make it possible?
3. The legalists troubled the Gentile believers and unsettled their minds. How have you seen performance-based faith unsettle others, or yourself?
4. Why can't rules alone change a heart? What does grace do that rules can't? (Rom 8:3–4)
5. What freedoms might you willingly set aside for the sake of another believer? (1 Cor 8:13; Rom 14:13)
6. When you meet a believer with different convictions on secondary issues, how can you keep your own "fences" without requiring others to keep them? Which truths can we never compromise on?
7. Who is one person you can encourage this week, and how will you do it?

Going Deeper This Week:

- Monday: Galatians 5:1, 13–15
- Tuesday: Romans 14:13–19
- Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 8:1–13
- Thursday: Ephesians 4:1–6
- Friday: Hebrews 10:23–25